Registered letters were sent to the following:

*Upon payment of dues and penalty, the licenses of Drs. Johnson, McDaniels and Niles became automatically in force. The county attorney of Toole County advises that Dr. Evans of Shelby is no longer in active practice of dentistry.

Dr. Bell and Dr. Baker both being unable to attend the National Convention, Dr. J. A. Wright, who was appointed a member of the Board to fill Dr. Johnson's unexpired term, was made delegate.

Report of Dr. Wright upon proceedings of the meeting of the American Dental Association:

As a member of the State Board of Dental Examiners, I attended the annual convention of the National Board of Examiners at Cleveland, Ohio, during September 10th and 11th, 1923. The meeting was largely attended, with representation from almost every state.

At that meeting an effort was made to standardize all State

Dental Laws. A committee was appointed to draft such laws and place them in the hands of the different State Boards to work for their adoption.

The meeting showed a sincere attempt to raise the standard of dental education through the National Dental Educational Council (six of the members being chosen from the National Board of Dental Examiners). This educational council is endeavoring to standardize the entrance requirements, curriculum and conditions of graduation of the various dental colleges, classifying the schools as "A," "B," and "C" schools. The examining boards of the different states are requested not to examine students from class "C" schools, under penalty of forfeiture of their membership in the National Organization. This unification of dental laws in the different states, together with the standardization of dental schools, will ultimately bring about reciprocity of licenses to practice dentistry in the different states.

(Signed) JOSEPH A. WRIGHT, D. D. S.

In former years the Annual Report has contained the "Rules for Conducting Dental Examinations" and the "Act to Regulate the Practice of Dentistry in Montana."

Each year this has added considerable expense in the printing, and for this reason has been eliminated. If you wish information on either of these subjects, drop a line to the Secretary and a printed form covering the subject will be mailed to you promptly.
